

TWRYG – Directions.

Approach Blaenau Ffestiniog from either the North or the South on the A470. Rhyd y Gro is a terrace, not a road, so your “satnav” will not recognise it. If you want to use “satnav”, put in “Glanypwll Road, Tanygrisiau”.

From the North: When you reach the bottom of the hill, you come to a roundabout. Don't turn left into Blaenau, but go straight across, (A496 – Porthmadog & Harlech road), then follow this road round to the right. At the next (left hand) bend, go straight ahead (i.e. turn right) and then take the next turn left, over the level crossing. Go past the pub and down the hill. 2 Rhyd y Gro is on the left, just past the 3rd little road on the left, just before some walled car-parking spaces on the right.

From the South: Follow the A470 right through Blaenau until you reach the roundabout at the end of the town. Turn left onto the A496, then proceed as above.

Or, if approaching from Porthmadog or Harlech on the A496: Turn left as you enter the built up area, but then go straight ahead (avoiding the sharp left turn to the Power Station). At the 'T' junction, by the chapel, turn right and follow this road up the hill. 2 Rhyd y Gro is on the right, just after the walled car-parking spaces on the left.
